

Prayers for the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time – November 6, 2016

PENITENTIAL ACT

Lord Jesus, you faced the denial of life after death: Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, you taught and showed the meaning of resurrection: Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you call us to live life fully in the light of resurrection: Lord, have mercy.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Presider My friends, we are called to live in the light of the resurrection, and so we pray for all who inhabit this fragile planet with us.

Lector: For the church: that it may demonstrate the meaning of the resurrection...we pray,

- For encouragement for those yearning for peace in the face of war, violence and conflict...we pray,
- For encouragement for those struggling to make ends meet for themselves and their families...we pray,
- For reassurance for those who do not have all the answers in life...we pray,
- For those who struggle to believe in resurrection, especially those who have lost a loved one...we pray,
- For encouragement for those who fear the outcomes of the coming election and for those charged with leading us into the future...we pray,
- For those who are preparing for marriage, that God may lead them to continue to strengthen their relationships with God, and each other... we pray...
- That young men and women in our parish will follow the example of the Blessed Mother by remaining open to God's will in their lives. We pray to the Lord.
- For those sick, the dying and those who have died...(including)...;and for those who minister to the dying and grieving...we pray,

Presider God of everlasting life: keep us hopeful in what lies beyond, while we struggle to live life fully each and every day. Help us to be people of faith and hope, who encourage those who have lost hope. We ask this in the name of your son, Jesus, who showed us the meaning and purpose of life. Amen.
